Roblox uses multiple methods of advertising. They first started advertising on websites like Nickelodeon, but they have moved to focusing on social media sites like Facebook and Twitter.[66] Roblox also primarily advertises at gaming conventions such as E3 and Minecon. Roblox has an official YouTube channel on which they occasionally stream live events called "Developer Live", where Roblox employees give sneak peeks of upcoming features.[67] They have also recently released a list of YouTubers that are apart of their Developer Program called the "Roblox Ambassador Program". These YouTubers are able to test new features in Roblox before anyone else with the exception of Google employees.

Roblox is governed by a global moderation team, consisting of volunteers and employees. Moderators monitor Roblox for inappropriate content like violence, nudity, profanity and copyright infringement. Moderators have the ability to mute, ban, or delete users from a game. Players can also report other players for inappropriate behaviour. In addition, moderators are expected to help players in need with moderation and issue resolution.

In February 2021, it was reported that a game called "Miner's Haven" has been criticized by Roblox users for having a suicide feature where players would have the option of killing themselves when their health reached zero. The players who played this game received a message from the developer named Master Zen said that he was working on an update that removed this feature. The update was released in March 2021 and it included an anti-suicide feature where the health would reset to 100 instead of 0. However, the developer confirmed that he would "still allow players to commit suicide if they are in the mood". To make up for this issue, Master Zen released a series of development updates that included fixing bugs and adding new features to "Miner's Haven".
