There are also people who scam other players by selling items with prices they can't get for items that aren't worth much at all when you try to sell them. I once had someone scam me because of that. They told me their account was hacked and that they could fix it for me if I give them one of my item. So I gave them one and they scammed me. Another problem is when people are posting comments and other players comment back at them about it. There is a lot of spamming going on, but the worst part is there is a lot of inappropriate content that is being made like adult themes, swearing, and inappropriate skins.

In 2021, ROBLOX updated their entire website to match the current version of their branding. The new design was made to be sharper and cleaner than the former one, and removed many visual effects that were seen as archaic and dated. A few key features of this change include a slightly larger "R", as well as a background shape for it similar to that of a "double-r", which ended up being used for every future iteration of the logo. Looking back at my own experience with Minecraft, it's so easy to see why people were so obsessed with it. The game was all about survival. It was about building a new life out of nothing. Things that would make you successful weren't free; they required you to work hard for them. But they were worth the wait, because it would mean you'd gather more items over time, and then you could make your house bigger or better fortified. The game was about connecting with your friends, and making sure that they were safe and able to live their own lives in the Minecraft world as well.

I am not a Minecraft addict, but I do enjoy playing that game. However, that is only because my friends and I play it together. Not because of the millions of dollars or diamonds you can get for free on Roblox. People are obsessed with Roblox; my Facebook account was filled with friends who played Minecraft as if they were addicted to crack. They would constantly post pictures about their new lifesize cardboard builds they worked on at home; taking ages-long breaks between each video to watch more videos of minecraft. We've all had friends who were that addicted to Roblox in our time, but I have never met one like Sinead who was "deeply miserable" because she was deprived of playing it. That was always the case whenever anyone mentioned it, I'm sure; parents would frequently ask me if and how I managed to get my grades, and teachers would always ask me if we had any homework. Sometimes they'd even assign us essays to write about our time on Roblox; even though a few months before everyone stopped doing them unless they were mandatory.
